

Dureco Sapphire

the Longest-Lasting Wooden Flooring

Upgrade your home with Dureco organic wooden floors, the longest-lasting surface available for wooden flooring. Designed to provide safer and more hard-wearing surfaces, Dureco floors can allow you to worry less about spills, stains, slips, and scratches.

Long-lasting wood flooring

Dureco floors are made in Germany. They're built from more than 90% organic wood, with real wood graining, feel, and texture. They are highly durable and wear-resistant. They offer up to ten times more resistance to dents than standard wood flooring. Even after 10 years, Dureco floors will look just as good and feel just as strong as when they were first laid out.

Guaranteed protection

Against water spills

---

With Dureco floors, you won't have to worry about liquid spills warping and staining your floors.

Thanks to their SEAL technology, they can withstand water on the surface for up to 24 hours.

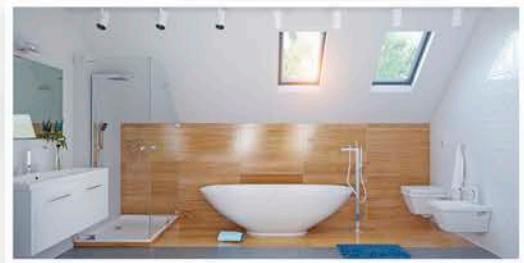

The high-density wooden baseboard that they're constructed with provides premium protection against moisture penetration. They're enforced with Corundum that gives them a diamond-hard finish and outstanding stability, durability, and lasting pristine beauty.

Quality flooring anywhere in the house

Dureco floors are great for kitchens, bathrooms, and any room in the house. They're suitable for underfloor heating and are very easy to install with their integral click system. They feature premium designs with real wood feel for quality that can be seen and felt. They're also easy to clean and care for, so they can help reduce the hassles of maintaining a tidy home.

Let your home be a safe space for fun

Dureco floors are guaranteed to be child-proof and pet-proof. They're even infused with antibacterial properties. Their wood is sourced from certified sustainable forestry, is plastic-free, and is over 90% organic, safeguarding your family's health as well as the environment.

Live your life to the fullest - Free from worry even for the truly unexpected

Having wooden flooring that can stand up to the little mishaps of everyday life can help ease your mind and relax more at home. Dureco floors are stain resistant, impact-resistant, scratch-resistant, and water-resistant.

With this surface, you won't be fussing about warped or tainted floorboards.

With Dureco floors, you can focus on the more important things in life.
